The Well-Tempered clAIvier

Fugue X in E minor, three voices: Fuga a due cori con corale

Keyboard, three voices (two choirs and a chorale)

Claude / Sam (chorale: Nikolaus Decius, "O Lamm Gottes, unschuldig"; after J. S. Bach, BWV 244 no. 1)

14
Ch
I
II
Episode: the questions in diminution
16
Recognition (line 3)
18
Recognition: Coro I, subject in G major = the chorale line in diminution
Recognition: Coro II, subject in E minor a tenth below (natural-minor tail)
Line 4: subject in augmentation
21
Recognition: Coro I, inversion in G major
Recognition: Coro II, inversion in B minor a sixth below (A natural against the chorale D)
24
Coro II: subject in augmentation (E minor) under chorale line 4

26
Ch
I
II
28
Dialogue in diminution: Was? - Wohin?
30
Line 5: stretto, forms exchanged
Coro I: inversion (G major), a beat before chorale line 5 (stretto 1)
Coro II: subject (E minor), two beats later (stretto 2)
32
34

Line 6: tenths
36
Ch
I
II
Coro I: subject on B (diatonic in G major) under chorale line 6, a tenth above Coro II
Coro II: subject (G major) a tenth below
Dominant pedal; breath
38
41
Line 7: final stretto
43
Coda
45
Final stretto: Coro I, subject (E minor), two beats later: the final cadence
Final stretto: Coro II, inversion (E minor) under the last chorale line (second half re-voiced to fill the thirds; tail turned down to the dominant)