The Well-Tempered clAIvier

Prelude VI in D minor

Piano

Claude / Sam (after J. S. Bach, Toccata BWV 565 and Prelude BWV 851)

an octave lower

two octaves lower, onto the low D

Toccata: after BWV 565 (A-G-A, G F E D C# D, in octaves)

Toccata con recitativo. Adagio - Allegro - Recitativo - Presto (♩ = 150)

Allegro: running triplets (after BWV 851) over a tonic pedal diminished seventh rolled up over the D, resolved to D minor

the bass walks the lament ground: D, C#

C, B (D7/C - G/B)

Bb, A (Gm/Bb - A)

Dm - C7/E

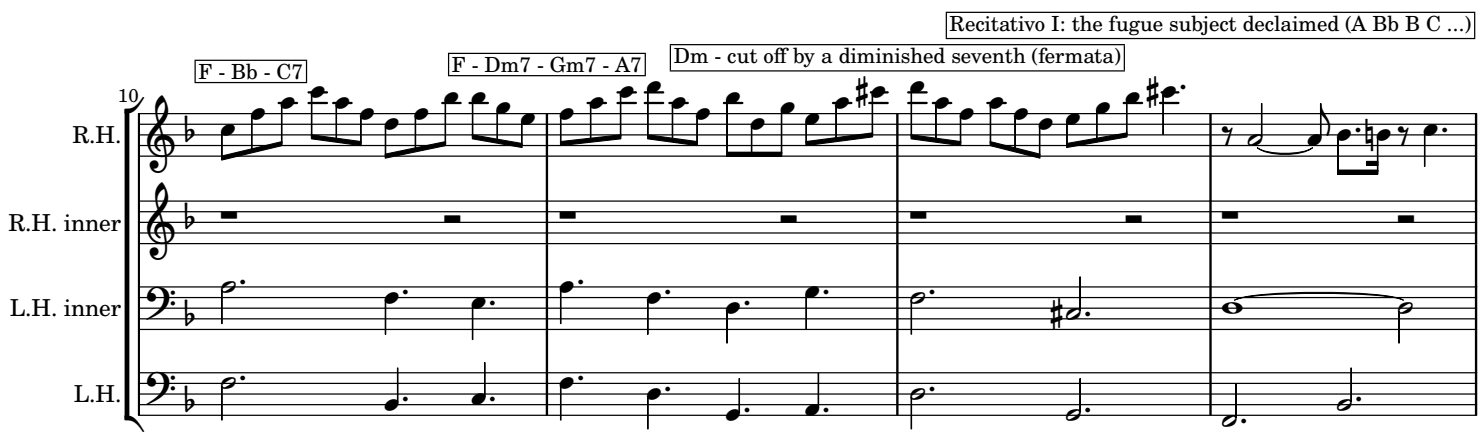

Recitativo I: the fugue subject declaimed (A Bb B C ...)

F - Bb - C7

F - Dm7 - Gm7 - A7

Dm - cut off by a diminished seventh (fermata)

... D, and the leap to A, over F: the music turns to F major
Allegro: F major
Gm7 - C7
... C# D C# E ...
14
R.H.
R.H. inner L.H. inner
L.H.
F - Dm
Bb - E7/G# (towards A minor)
Am - Dm/F
E - Am
18
Recitativo II: the subject at the E level, in the bass (E F F# G ...)
Dm/F - E7
Am/C - F - Bo/D - E (fermata)
... G# A G# B ...
22
... A, and the leap to E: A major over its fifth Presto: diminished-seventh cascade, falling onto the A the BWV 565 figure again, stopping on C#
half cadence on A (attacca)
26