The Well-Tempered clAIvier

Fugue VI in D minor (a 4)

Keyboard - four voices

Claude / Sam (ground after J. S. Bach, Crucifixus BWV 232)

Inversus = the ground at double speed (Alto)

Station I (D minor): the ground in the Bass

Subject (Soprano)

Passacaglia e fuga sopra il Crucifixus. Grave, ma sempre in moto (♩ = 76)

Inversus (Soprano)

Station II (A minor): the ground in the Tenor; the Bass rests

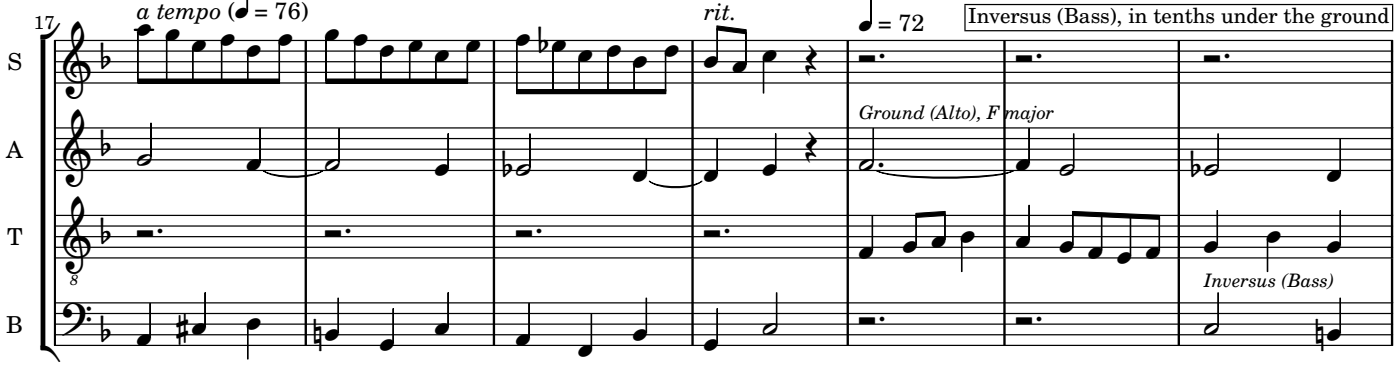

Answer (Alto)

Episode 1: falling fifths to F major

Station III (F major): the ground in the Alto; the Soprano rests

Inversus (Bass), in tenths under the ground

Subject (Soprano), F major

Episode 2: the surface quickens (sixteenths), through G minor

Stretto: subject (Tenor) and answer (Alto), one bar apart
31
S
A T
B
Subject (Tenor), stretto
Summit: the ground augmented in the Bass; inversus (Tenor)
36
rit.
♩ = 70
Answer (Alto), stretto at one bar
Inversus (Tenor) over the augmented ground
Ground augmented (Bass)
Inversus (Tenor): the ground at double speed under the two grounds
Subject (Alto) between the two grounds
Ground in the Soprano (at the dominant): two speeds in the outer voices
Ground (Soprano), at the dominant, over its augmentation
45
rit.
Subject (Alto) between the two grounds
Inversus (Tenor) under the two grounds
Coda: the subject augmented (Soprano) over the tonic
54
♩ = 56
♩ = 60
Subject augmented (Soprano), D major rit.
♩ = 42