The Well-Tempered clAIvier

Fugue VII in E-flat major (a 4): Fuga a due cori

Keyboard: two choirs of two voices (Coro II right hand, Coro I left hand)

Claude / Sam

The joke: augmentation, interrupted by diminution
Coro II: inversion in diminution (interrupting)
a tempo (♩ = 76)
25
S/A T/B
Coro II: the subject in diminution (mocking Coro I) Coro I: augmentation (pompous)
Episode: the choirs swap forms
Stretto a 4: the levels fall by fifths to the tonic
Coro I gives up: heads a beat apart
stretto: inversion on E-flat (soprano, A-flat) 30
Coro II sings the head rectus (g)
stretto: inversion on D (alto, g) Coro I sings the head inverted (g)
stretto: subject on C (tenor, c)
Coda: ritornello, then "Wachet auf" in the tenor Climax: A-flat over B-flat
♩ = 64
♩ = 72
Dominant pedal
rit.
Coro II sings the rectus head, up to the climax 35
dominant pedal: head (tenor) ritornello: the inversion in diminution (as in the prelude) stretto: subject in E-flat (bass, home)
A-flat over B-flat, then E-flat
The augmentation finished ♩ = 50
rit.
Coro II: the head, upside down
40
Chorale "Wachet auf", line 1 (tenor)
Coro I finishes its augmentation (F E-flat D)